DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because element "66" in Figure 6 lacks a line indicator to disclose the adhesive. Corrected drawing sheets are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3722

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 2, 4, 8, 9, 14-17 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ritter (2,363,472).

Ritter discloses a mailing card comprising a security tag (11) coupled to the card for selectively concealing at least a portion of information (17) displayed on the card, the tag comprising at least a first portion (14) and a second portion (the examiner considers the second portion to be the section located between the marginal edges 14) coupled to the first portion, the first portion being secured to the card with a bond that is stronger than a bond used to secure the second portion to the card (see figure 3 and page 2, col. 1, lines 13-28).

Regarding claim 2, the second portion is at least partially removable from the card without breaking the bond formed between the first portion and the card (as seen in figure 3).

Regarding claim 4, when the second portion is removed from the card, an opening is formed enabling selective viewing of the information displayed on the card (as seen in figure 3).

Regarding claim 8, Ritter discloses a security tag for use in selectively concealing selection information displayed on a writing medium as set forth in the above rejections to claim 1.

Regarding claim 9, Ritter discloses removing at least a section of the second portion from the writing medium without removing the first portion from the writing medium as set forth in the above rejections to claim 2.

Regarding claim 14, see the above rejections to claim 4.

Regarding claims 15-17 and 19, Ritter discloses the claimed method as set forth in the above rejections to claims 1 and 4.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 3, 13 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ritter.

Ritter discloses the claimed invention except for at least a section of the security tag being substantially transparent. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the sections of the security tag of any required material depending on the result desired by the end user, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 5-7 and 10-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The cited references disclose mailing devices.
